Help Clients like Elizabeth this Giving Tuesday

Meet Elizabeth W., a resilient 64-year-old who, despite facing challenges, embodies strength and determination. Having lost her husband a few years ago with no children, she finds herself navigating life alone. With 35 years of dedicated service at FoodMax, a recent fall at work left her with a broken elbow, making it impossible to drive. Elizabeth, now dependent on assistance for transportation to medical appointments, turned to Community Partners in Caring (CPC) for support. Given her hearing impairment, CPC introduced a texting feature through our GoTo app, allowing Elizabeth to easily request rides and communicate her availability for friendly visits. Financial constraints make it difficult for her to afford transportation alternatives, and with limited support from a busy friend, CPC becomes a lifeline. Elizabeth expresses deep gratitude for the sense of security and assistance provided by our dedicated volunteers.
